

In order to give you the opportunity to test PedGo or AENEAS, we offer demo licences of the currently available versions. This document specifies the conditions and will guide you through the ordering process.

Conditions

PedGo or AENEAS Demo licence:

- will run for less then 20 agents,
- apart from that offers the full functionality,
- will only be granted to institutions and companies,
- is free of charge,
- has to be ordered in written form.

(Please use the official paper of your institution).

Ordering procedure

The following step has to be taken in order to order your demo licence:

Send us the duly completed order form, which you can download from our homepage (<http://www.traffgo-ht.com/de/pedestrians/downloads/index.html>). Please do not forget to sign and stamp the form.

What you will receive

After we have received your order, we will send to you by email:

The link and access information for our protected download section. Here you can download the manual and the software.

Please note, that we cannot grant you support for demo licences.